A Celebration of Maltese Tradition

Easter in Malta

Easter in Malta is a season rich in tradition, celebration, and exceptional flavours. Generations have gathered around the table to enjoy beloved sweets prepared especially for this time of year.

From the iconic Figolla, filled with sweet almond paste, to the fragrant Colomba, and the delicate Kwareżimal, these pastries are deeply rooted in Maltese culinary heritage.

At Marie Boutique Patisserie, we honour these traditions by combining authentic recipes with premium ingredients and artisanal craftsmanship – creating Easter treats that are both nostalgic and refined.

Celebrate Easter with handcrafted pastries made with passion.

Kwareżimal

A traditional Lenten sweet.

Kwareżimal is a beloved Maltese biscuit traditionally enjoyed during the Lenten season. Made with almonds, citrus zest, and aromatic spices, these rich and fragrant biscuits offer a taste of local tradition and make a thoughtful addition to Easter gatherings.

Classic Easter Colomba

Italy's iconic Easter cake

Our Colomba Pasquale is slowly proofed for 30 hours, creating an exceptionally soft and fragrant dough.

The cake is enriched with candied orange peel, topped with crunchy almonds and granulated sugar, and baked to a perfect golden finish.

A timeless Easter centrepiece best enjoyed with family and friends.

Figolli

Malta's most beloved Easter sweet.

Figolli

A true symbol of Easter in Malta, our Figolli are prepared following a traditional recipe. Filled with pure crushed almonds, delicately flavoured and baked inside a golden pastry shell.

Each piece is carefully crafted and finished either with classic sugar fondant or dipped in our signature milk chocolate rocher coating.

Two Classic Finishes

Whether you prefer the traditional sugar fondant or the indulgent richness of milk chocolate rocher, our Figolli offer two delicious ways to enjoy this Easter classic.
